Overview

ODYSSEY is a lightly used Endeavour Cat that is offered at a reduced price and being sold in "AS IS, WHERE CONDITION" with offers encouraged. In August 2005 ODYSSEY had a lightning strike that blew out the depth finder transducer in the port hull and the boat had a partial sinking. The transducer hole was plugged, water pumped out the day of lighting strike and the boat was delivered to a boat yard for repair. On September 29, 2014, the seller had a the water survey performed which is available to a prospective buyer.
