DETAILED INFORMATION

General Description

The Pursuit 3000 offshore express is tournament-bred . Her generous beam provides a wide-open cockpit to battle game whether in the Salish sea or offshore. The helm has ample space for a full suite of electronics for extended voyages, and gives the captain excellent visibility. The inviting cabin, detailed in teak and holly accents and finished in contemporary fabric, has the spaciousness to make family and guests feel right at home. The settee, featuring a high-gloss teak table is served by a functional galley with 110V stove, microwave, AC/DC refrigerator and plenty of storage. A large double berth forward and roomy convertible settee make overnight voyages a pleasure. With a hull design specifically created for performance, stability and a soft, dry ride, the 3000 Express is a reliable standard in the Pursuit line.
