SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Never have we seen such a cleanly presented 2003 Fleming 55. From her specification and delivery until today, she has been professionally kept with one goal in mind: simple operation of an elegant and robust cruising platform to allow her owners to "go wild" into the remotest corners of Alaska.

Her owners have achieved their goal with a decade of cruising summers in Alaska. And the yacht looks NEW! Her 2220 cruising hours belie the immaculate engine room. This yacht is setup for the Northwest with diesel heat, propane cooking, and a large inverter battery bank designed for easy living while 'on the hook'. Equipped with 600' ground tackle, and a "Zen-like" feel to her interior, this yacht is elegant in her simplicity and oh so comfortable with her Fleming engineering and sea kindly performance, especially in the 'tough stuff'.

If you are seeking a high latitude cruising yacht, you will want to make an appointment to see CEREMONY today! At our docks.
