SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

This 2005/2012 Blackwell 61' Convertible is a perfect example of a custom Carolina-built sportfisher that is a proven fish-raiser and is ready to take you on your next fishing expedition. The Wild Hooker underwent a full and detailed refit in 2012, and presents the opportunity to own a fully-rigged, custom boat designed with serious fishing in mind for a fraction of the cost of a new custom Carolina boat and none of the wait time.

As part of her detailed refit in 2012 "Wild Hooker" was repowered with new, 2012 Mann 1550hp engines, delivering serious performance.

December 2015 Upgrades:

- New teak covering boards
- New steering ram and power assist with two spare rams
- New painted black mask
- Prop speed on all running gear
- Engine service

July 2015 Upgrades:

- New bottom paint
- Transom and mezzanine sprayed with clear coat

She has been maintained to the highest standards with a full time crew!

The owner has taken delivery of a new sportfish.
