DETAILED INFORMATION

Preface

Rivale may turn out to be the enfant terrible of the Riva family. Its name certainly predicts spirit and strong character. However it is not just a question of name. Rivale has a unique, razor-sharp outline. Its heart is elegant and inviting, made of sophisticated woods and fabrics. The internal design is a fusion of elegance and sobriety, featuring congenial living solutions. Rivale comes in the ideal sizes for the boat owner who wants to sail and enjoy a boat, and for those who wish to experience the sea in full comfort while in a complete privacy (that is why the crew cabin is preset to be used also as a guest cabin). It is perfect for those who expect to be able to count on complete reliability from a boat, together with actual simplicity of use. Introduced in Cannes in September, in few weeks it has already registered an extraordinary success from the sales point of view. Conceived for people who create fashion but who wants to appear without parade. It represents the philosophy of the new Riva boats: being strongly innovative while keeping a strong bond with the tradition of a famous shipyard which became a legend thanks to its style and its quality.
