Overview

Recently converted sailors, Morning Star's owners for the last two years have satisfied themselves that the trawler life style is for them, and they're selling here to move up to a larger vessel. Morning Star enjoyed an excellent survey when she was sold two years ago. Since, she has been regularly maintained. This year new batteries and new bottom job were completed! She sports a new bimini, new covers for the cap rail, and extensive interior redecoration. Call or email for an extensive gallery of 170 pictures, schematics of all systems as built, and a list of the many upgrades and options included on the yacht.
