Overview

No expense was spared restoring this beautiful Chris Craft 28 Commander. You can tell when it's a labor of love and her new (not rebuilt) fuel injected Crusader 5.7MPI engines and new (not rebuilt) velvet drive transmissions are your first clues. The discerning buyer will note her classic Ray Hunt designed deep vee hull and know this boat will please both the family and fisherman in equal measure. Topsides have been painted and the original hull gelcoat still shines like new. She features new electronics, gauges, engine synchronizers, fuel tanks, exhaust, props, wiring, windows, helm cushions, cabin cushions, stereo and even the wipers and motors. Over $120k has been invested to bring her back. All she needs is an owner who will appreciate the timeless lines and solid construction of this classic vessel. More details and photos to come after spring commissioning.
