INTRODUCING THE NEW MARITIMO M54 CRUISING MOTOR YACHT

Step aboard the M54 and you will notice the enlarged cockpit, with bi-fold doors, which work to bring the saloon into the cockpit. The galley aft design incorporates a full-size fridge and a well-appointed pantry, ideal for easy entertaining.

Now incorporating a full beam master suite with an abundance of storage in drawers, hanging lockers and underneath the master bed. The mezzanine level above the master has lockers, drawers, a full-length mirror and vanity, ensuring ultimate convenience for all occasions.

Your guests are comfortably accommodated in a guest suite forward, bunks to starboard, and a day head easily accessed by both guest accommodations.

The air-conditioned, fully enclosed flybridge is a skipper's dream, and is capable of fitting three 15" navigation screens. The crew is accommodated in the optional second helm seat and side lounge, or if preferred, a double helm seat.

Walk aft on the flybridge and you will be surprised by the size of the aft balcony, a large and versatile space for entertaining, relaxing and taking in your stunning surroundings.
