Upper Aft Cockpit

---

A few steps up from the aft cockpit you enter the beginning of the outdoor areas on the yacht. The first thing you notice is the new canvas and super clear Stratoglass enclosures. All changed out last year and still looking new. New carpet is on the decks.

Spacious, open and airy; this area asks to be lounged in and enjoyed. Two new canvas doors block out the spray and open to give access down the wide decks forward. A bench seat aft is across from the entertainment area with wet bar and icemaker.

Aft Cockpit

Stepping aboard Just Cruisin you quickly gain appreciation for a well thought out and designed motoryacht. Her aft cockpit gives access into the yacht, A door aft to the swim platform area; a door down into the Master Stateroom; steps up into the upper aft cockpit. High freeboard provides security while a large door in the cockpit sole is access to the generator area. A bench seat gives you a place to enjoy coffee off the master stateroom in the morning.

Manufacturer Provided Description

The Silverton 442 Cockpit Motor Yacht and her sister ship, the 422, have a lot in common. From the salon forward, both boats share the same incredible interior and spacious bridge. The 442 is a flush-deck aft-cabin that brings innovative molded steps to both the swim platform and flybridge. The aft deck, with its standard hardtop and wetbar, is great for entertaining. The transom includes storage for electrical cords, hoses, fenders, and lines, as well as providing a swim ladder, and a hot and cold shower for all those water sports. Interior space utilization is important, and the galley, staterooms, heads and salon of the 442 are designed to incorporate storage areas without passengers seeing them.

Bridge and Helm

Up a few stairs to the bridge and helm area continues to show lots of space and views. Inviting you to the helm are three captains seats across the helm. Forward is a bench seat almost the width of the boat. Again, new carpet, canvas and Stratoglas shows the care put into the boat by this current owner.

Full 360 degree view from the helm allows for safe operation. The helm is well laid out and easy to operate from.

The Garmin 7212 was recently added and the Garmin 188C Sounder shows where the fish are. Raytheon radar and autopilot finish out the navigation equipment with an ICOM M502 VHF Radio.

Decks

Walking forward out of the cockpit you have wide walkways with a tall stainless handrail all the way forward to the foredeck. Nonskid is on the decks with security in the handrails all around. Forward is the anchor windless with controls on the deck and at the helm.
