Overview

This new cruiser accurately represents the metamorphosis of the C38, one of the yard's greatest achievement and best seller. The new C38 Sport-Coupe' is inspired by the structured style and linear edges of the C68 with a redistribution of the interior space in a modular style. The internal layout has been designed by Christian Grande to allow the owner a huge freedom of choice. To live in an "open space" due to a large common area and a single cabin, or, by using the partition, to create two equally spacious cabins, one at the bow, the other at the stern, each equipped with private access to both the kitchen and the bathroom.
