DETAILED INFORMATION

65' Marquis Motor Yacht ACQUAMARINA

65' Marquis Motor Yacht ACQUAMARINA, every masterpiece starts with inspiration. Walk on board the 65' Marquis, enter through the convex glass sliding doors and you're instantly transported. The attention to detail is impeccable. Your eyes scan the unbelievable spaciousness of a single floor plan that merges seamlessly into the galley and formal dining area. For a second, you think you're on an 80-footer.

Key Features

The ingenious use of the full beam lends nicely to the large entertaining area. Natural light fills the room, illuminating the exotic high-gloss cherry and imported sapele pommele woods. Perfect joinery flaunts masterful hand-craftsmanship. The 32" plasma screen TV snuggles comfortably into the built-in wood cabinetry and disappears from sight with the touch of a button. The media center awaits for you to relax and enjoy the ambiance. You now realize she is truly a masterpiece, inside and out. From the stern, the main deck's visual scope reaches all the way forward, through the salon, dining room, galley, and pilothouse to the seascape ahead. With large windows along each side, the effect is airy, expansive, with the unencumbered feel of roomy volume. Accounting for some of its lush physical comfort zones, Marquis's engineers, in creating the living spaces, used the CAD 3D programs to fashion full-scale plywood models of all major traffic and relaxational areas, and to preserve the dedication to 6' 8" headroom. Walking around these mock-ups revealed information even to those experienced yacht designers.

Transmission: ZF Gear Ratio: 2,467:1 Props: 38" x 46 1/2" 5-blade ZF Faster Engine Controls: MTU/Sturdy electronic Steering: BCS Twin Disc hydraulic power-assist

Salon

Earthy, warm colors earmark the interior décor, with expanses of a light, creamy tan accented by cherry woodwork throughout, including wall coverings and overhead, which features fine-finished wood valences. The spacious salon seems even larger than it is, owing to the openness of view, and seeming casual placement of furniture, plus the windows lining both beams. Deeply cushioned couches, easy chairs, coffee tables and cabinetry line the bulkheads, providing storage areas as well as visually cordoning off the living room from the dining area and galley. Marquis Yachts doesn't extend custom design to its buyers, but does have a broad list of "owner preference" décor items.

Dining Area

On the starboard side, the dining room holds an oval table for six, done in modern Danish style, while at port, the fully furnished galley presents complete food-prep equipment, including stainless steel appliances, convection/microwave oven and ceramic cooktop. Imported granite countertops and floors highlight the upscale galley. Exotic sapele pommele inlaid cabinet tops sport an impact resistant high-gloss finish. Plumbing and fixtures are imported from Italy. As the Marquis is a production yacht, color schemes are standard, as is furniture. To the far left of this picture, a uniquely designed glass circular staircase, amidships just at the dining room, offers easy access to the night-time living area on the lower deck. The staircase, molded glass, presents no sharp corners, as all the edges and joinery on the yacht are smoothed and finished to offer ultimate safe passage, even in rough seas. • Formal Dining Table for 6 with Teal Gloss Table and Chairs • Breakfast Table Forward with Blue Leather U-Shape Sofa • Lighting
