DETAILED INFORMATION

Accommodation

The aft cabin, nestled beneath the helm, includes a flat panel television. Since there is typically less motion in the center of the boat than in the bow, this becomes an ideal place for children to entertain themselves when traveling isn't fun. The aft cabin also includes storage lockers and a place to store the filler cushion for the topside settee. On the port side just inside the companionway, the galley refrigerator is mounted at eye level where its contents can be seen, with large drawers beneath for easy access storage. The galley also includes a two-burner stove, microwave, coffee maker, and a tip out trash can. The forward bed is set diagonally, which makes better use of available space. The head is divided by a Plexiglas door into two compartments - one with the vanity and dry storage, the other with the commode, shower, and wet storage.
