DETAILED INFORMATION

Accommodation

The Manhattan 73 is defined by its ingenious use of space. The vessel enjoys increased volume not just by length but also by courtesy of the broad beam that's carried lower in the hull. This enables a third full-size double stateroom on the lower deck, all three en-suites. The fourth cabin is portside poolman. The upper galley is very well equipped and of practical use for receiving guests on board. The main saloon is now also on one single, sweep-through level, providing a vast entertainment space. It has beautiful interior finished in satin cherry complemented by navy blue leather in the main saloon.
