Overview

A great example of the ever popular Portofino 46, she has been meticulously looked after by her Russian owners, making sure she is in fantastic condition. She has been lightly used on a regular basis which leave her with relatively low hours for a boat of her age. This Portofino 46 is the perfect vessel to use as a day cruiser and also for those long weekends away, with her two cabins she is ideal for family trips or just entertaining friends. A lovely boat at a very competitive price, a really good opportunity to get a lot more boat for your money. The owners are keen to sell and are open to offers. For anymore information please contact us.
