DETAILED INFORMATION

Highlights

The 57 Mckinna Pilothouse was first introduced in 1997 and has since delivered well over forty to anxiously awaiting yachtsman. Its success is due in large to its broad appeal and excellent interior volume. The latest version of this classic yacht has incorporated an increased beam to 17' for additional volume and the ability to handle the additional engine room equipment that most modern yachtsmen require.

This three cabin layout offers very spacious accommodations for you and your guests featuring a midship Master with Queen Berth and En Suite Head including a tub. The handsome VIP stateroom is forward. The bunk room converts to a day room through the clever use of a system that easily lowers the upper bunk to become the back rest of a settee. A full Galley adjacent to a very impressive salon. The Flybridge has ample seating and comfortable helm.

You get it all with the all new 57 Mckinna, and you get it at a very attractive price.
