The 38 Sabre Salon Express represents the latest in design and naval architecture. Her exterior profile says "downeast" and she is built in the tradition of Maine boat building: elegant, strong, reliable, steady and seaworthy.

The interior of the Sabre 38 is an open design which suits a day's outing with friends as easily as it does a longer cruise. Her cockpit is raised to a level just 5 inches below the main salon so as to connect these two important social spaces.

In her main salon, a raised U-shaped settee with fixed table comfortably seats six and the forward end of the settee can be oriented forward to provide a comfortable mate's seat while underway. To starboard, is a long cabinet housing LED TV and extensive storage compartments.

On the lower level are a master stateroom with queen-size island berth and an en-suite head with shower. A galley is located to port and within easy reach and sight of the main salon.
