DETAILED INFORMATION

OVERVIEW

MANUFACTURER PROVIDED DESCRIPTION

The extra length of the cockpit gives the 430 a much-improved profile over the 390's stocky motor yacht appearance, and the extra hull length also adds a knot or two in speed. Carver packed a lot of living space into the interior of the 430 with double berths in both staterooms, a full dinette, a roomy salon area, and stall showers in both heads.

A sliding door in the master stateroom leads directly out to the cockpit—a practical and extremely useful convenience. There's enough room in the cockpit for some diving gear or even a wet bike. Dinette converts to a double and in the salon is a single size hide-a-bed, full a total of three additional berths.
