DETAILED INFORMATION

Manufacturer Provided Description

The new 63' Vertigo arrives to immense acclaim. With its harmonic and slender lines, Riva reinterprets the "open" concept. A roll bar design emphasizes its unique style, permitting a spacious opening in the rear of the cockpit - an accent to her resolute spirit. The central command position sports the latest generation navigation instruments and the power seat pays homage to the Rivarama. The interiors exude maximum space and comfort. Below deck, natural light cast a natural glow from the large side windows. Light oak and wenge wood give Vertigo a further touch of modernity, without foregoing Riva's distinctive elegance.

Exclusions

Owner's personal belongings.
