A classic motor yacht offering comfortable all-weather cruising and spacious accommodation. Over 18 years she has been from Maine to the Keys. enjoyed every step of the way. the current owners are reluctant but ready to sell her to the next owners to enjoy just like they did. She is equipped with twin Ford Lehman 120hp diesel engines, she has wide, teak side decks making her easy to move around. The bridge offers good all round visibility and comfortable seating. Inside, the teak joinery is complemented by cream finishes with a fully equipped lower helm. There is a double cabin forward with en-suite, a comfortable saloon which converts to two single berths, a well fitted galley and an aft-cabin with one double and one single berth. Well presented throughout and having recently undergone maintenance and servicing work, she is a fine example of this well-known marque.
