DETAILED INFORMATION

Vessel Walkthrough

The Hunter 306 is the logical step into keelboat cruising. The 306 offers real stability, solid performance and plenty of comfort in an easy to sail package. Whether you are moving up from a daysailer or down from a larger boat, you'll be impressed by all the 306 has to offer. Big boat amenities such as genuine Corian counters, spray lacquered teak furniture and bulkheads, designer grade faucets and hardware, and the best selection of fabrics are all included a standard.

Above decks, you'll see a huge cockpit that allows you to move around, even under sail. A custom console houses the rack & pinion steering, electronics, engine controls and even a place to set your drink. The powerful B & R rig is easily tamed, but provides for exciting performance. A standard arch keeps the cockpit clear and makes attachment of the bimini a breeze.

Come, Discover the 306 and see how we've removed the boundaries to bring you the highest level of comfort and performance available in a truly affordable package.

Manufacturer Provided Description

Hunter Marine is pleased to announce the latest addition to its collection - the Hunter 306. The 306 proves that owners can have a comfortable family cruiser in a model less than 30 feet in length. The 10-foot 9-inch beam boasts a spacious salon, as well as two private staterooms, one forward and one aft, a large head, a full-size galley, and even a nav station for charting the course. Eight opening hatches and ports provide plenty of light and the headroom is fantastic. The large beam also gives the captain and crew plenty of room in the cockpit. Deep, angled coamings make any passage a safe and comfortable one. The cockpit table with folding leaves makes entertaining easy. Two integral stern rail seats provide guests the best seats in the house. Standard features include Edson's rack and pinion steering, Lewmar self-tailing winches, a Furlex headsail furling, the B&R backstayless rig which Hunter is known for, and a Yanmar 18-horsepower inboard diesel. Hunter's famous Cruise Pac means this boat is ready for cruising the day it's delivered.
