DETAILED INFORMATION

Manufacturer Provided Description

The 3500 Open the next generation of Tiara Yachts. Reflecting its obvious Tiara heritage, the 3500 is a completely new yacht. The profile is enhanced by a unique curved reverse transom, with molded transom door and gate, and integrated swim platform and bow pulpit. Cockpit seating includes a double-wide back-to-back helm seat, as well as back-to-back companion seats. An optional aft lounge seat is also available. Below deck, the interior is large and comfortable, with headroom that is 6'6" in the salon, and 6'4" at the foot of the queen-sized pedestal berth in the owner's stateroom. The salon includes a starboard 7'4" lounge - convertible to a dinette - and/or a double berth (the lounge backrest also flips up to make a pullman-style berth. Opposite the lounge is an ample galley, and a spacious molded fiberglass shower/head.

Additional Description 1

The cockpit on the 3500 Open is comfortable and spacious, and provides plenty of seating options. The helm seat is wide and comfortable, with an aft wet bar with either storage with ice maker, and an aft-facing seat. The helm itself is the standard Tiara "heads up" fiberglass tilt-away station, with full flush mount electronics capability. To port is an all fiberglass companion door shroud with molded-in navigation chart area and drink holders. The companionway door is an acrylic sliding door with lock. The companion seating arrangement features a standard back-to-back configuration with storage and insulated cooler. The lower cockpit is spacious and an optional transom lounge is also available.

Additional Description2
