Overview

In 1968, Riva introduced the Riva Olympic as a successor to the Super Florida, was the last model to be built in wood. Named after the Mexico Olympic Games of 1968, there were 274 boats built with the vast majority delivered prior to 1975.

This example has been carefully maintained and restored, always stored in a shed and used occasionally during the summer months in the Aegean Sea. New Mercruiser engine in 2010 with very low hours, otherwise, she is completely authentic with original upholstery and beautifully cast metalwork.
