Overview

The "Ambush" is a true one of kind culmination of North Carolina Outer Banks custom craftsmanship. Her hull design and refined interior is second to none. The "Ambush" hull was constructed utilizing concepts based on a modified Deltaconic design now favored by a majority of long time Outer Banks boatbuilders and captains. This hull design was nurtured and tweaked for years and finally perfected. The result is an easy planing, efficient and ocean taming Custom Carolina style ride. The "Ambush" hull, house and bridge were built by Briglia Boatworks with particular attention paid to latest Carolina hull design concepts. Upon completion of the shell, Bluewater Yacht yard in Wanchese, NC was contracted to finish the build in 2010. Bluewater is known for complete perfection craftsmanship and in this particular vessel you will see why. Bluewater brought in some of the best minds and tradesmen to be involved with this project. The finish work is second to none and the "Ambush" was built to provide maximum comfort, economical operation and long range travel to the world's most fulfilling sportfishing destinations. This is a true one of a kind must see sportsfishing machine.
