ХАРАКТЕРИСТИКИ

Обзор

"Nine Lives" is a very nice example of what Hinterhoeller used to refer to the as "the greatest thirty-foot sailboat of all time".

She has traditional New England catboat lines, a free-standing spar with wishbone boom, a modern fin keel and a spade rudder. Her interior volume easily compares to most 35 footers. The well respected Canadian builder, Hinterhoeller, produced over 500 of these stout and simple cruising machines. Her quality construction is apparent everywhere you look, and her sailing abilities of will surprise you.

Highlights include:

- Shoal Draft 3'11"
- Universal M35 Diesel with 1610 hours
- Electric Lewmar Winch
- New Interior Upholstery
- Chartplotter, Autopilot, and Full Sailing Instruments
- Massive Cockpit For Entertaining or Sleeping Under The Stars
- Beautiful Teak Interior
- Propane Cabin And Water Heater
- Easy to Single Hand

Accommodations

The Nonsuch 30 Ultra has a spacious and practical layout for a 30-foot sailboat. Starting forward is the master stateroom with a double berth to port and a vanity and hanging locker to starboard. Excellent storage in lockers. There is a door that closes the stateroom off from the main salon. The head is next aft to starboard with a separate shower stall. There are two entrances, one from the main salon and the other from the master stateroom. The galley is opposite to port. The main salon has a settee to port with book shelves and a locker outboard and the nav station at the aft end. To starboard is an L-shaped dinette that converts to a double berth giving a total sleeping capacity for 5. Teak interior with teak and holly sole in excellent condition.

Jack Horner of Boat US weighs in on the NS30 construction-

"The keys to successful core composite construction are quality control and the knowledge of the builder. There are few, if any, boatbuilders with more experience building cored composite boats than George Hinterhoeller. The hulls and decks are joined on an inward flange and are securely bolted together through an aluminum toe rail."

Brokers Remarks

"Nine Lives" is a very nice example of what Hinterhoeller used to refer to the as "The greatest thirty-foot sailboat of all time".

In my opinion, the Hinterhoeller quality is on par with many high-end semi-custom builders. It is extremely rare to find any structural issues with these boats.

She has traditional New England catboat lines, a free-standing spar with wishbone boom, a modern fin keel and a spade rudder. Her interior volume easily compares to most 35 footers. The well respected Canadian builder, Hinterhoeller, produced over 500 of these stout and simple cruising machines. Her quality construction is apparent everywhere you look, and her sailing abilities of will surprise you.
