OVERVIEW

FREDDY (a 2012 Lazzara LSX92) has more new thinking and innovative features than any express yacht of any size. In addition her very low hours (only 850) leave her in like new condition. She accommodates eight overnight guests in four staterooms plus four crew members. She was the first yacht ever designed to utilize four of Volvo's revolutionary IPS 900 drives. The performance of this quad installation surpasses even your most ambitious expectations. Consider cruising at 26knots burning less than 80GPH total! In addition the joystick docking makes this the most maneuverable 92' yacht in its class.

A sleek profile and sexy styling complement the 92's smooth performance. Features such as the fold down balcony off of the Master Stateroom allow you and your guest to enjoy a beautiful breakfast or enjoy a spectacular sunset. No other yacht this size offers such an incredible opportunity like that. In addition the transom garage coverts to an amazing beach club complete with teak floor, fold down LCD TV and built in overhead shade from the aft garage door.

Freddy offers the "WOW" factor that very few yachts can. You can also be assured even more access to hard to get locations with a draft under 5' and a custom fold down hardtop allowing clearance under many of the lowest bridges.

Don't miss your opportunity to own a one-of-a-kind custom express yacht that will surely exceed your expectations.

MAIN SALON

A serene, luxe salon is reached through sliding glass doors. Dark wood floors and trim are offset by light-toned leather couches in the sitting area and chairs in the dining space. The bulkheads and overhead are done in light fabrics. Distinctive sculpted windows on either side, a glass door aft, the forward-swept windshield, and the sizable sunroof above the helm flood the interior with light. And the entire vessel, inside as well as outside, is equipped with LED lighting for night illumination.

MAIN HELM

The starboard lower helm is functional yet striking. Electrically operated, multi-position leather pilot and copilot seats provide comfortable vantage points and an excellent line of sight in every direction. A trio of customizable crystal-clear viewing screens displays everything from engine parameters and monitoring systems to nav information and radar overlays. At 27 knots, a mere 68 dB(A) at the lower helm and 66 in the salon make Freddy one of the quietest yachts.

- Two (2) leather helm chairs
- Wood floor
- Adjustable glass cockpit
- L-shaped seating group

AFT DECK

Entry is via the large teak-soled swim platform. Steps on either side lead to the afterdeck area where there is also teak underfoot. A large sunpad is centered directly between the stairways, and just forward is a seating area and a dining table for six. If the sun's too hot, simply deploy the electrically operated sunshade. There is also a flat screen TV that lifts out of a cabinet behind the table's forward bench seat.

AFT DECK/TRANSOM

Another surprise located in the transom garage, which transforms into a 160-square-foot, teak-soled patio with the removal of the PWC and tender. This arrangement takes a bite out of the engine room space, but all the crucial points of system and engine access are still easy to reach. A large flat screen TV folds down automatically- bring out the deck chairs and a chaise longue or two, and you have a very special entertainment space.
