Overview

Soul Candy was built as the Phat Mann by one of the premier North Carolina Builders, Paul Mann. The builder and owners main focus was finish, quality and performance with great attention to detail and their goal was to build the finest Paul Mann boat to date.

She was finished at the highest level making her an exceptional example of what a true custom Carolina sportfish is all about. Her quality and craftsmanship are evident the minute you step on board even before experiencing the legendary ride and performance. There have only been two owners and both have always kept her in fantastic condition and maintained at the highest level.

Highlights of her features

- Three massive staterooms
- Two large heads
- Salon headroom is 7 feet
- Full teak interior
- Full mezzanine
- Fuel 1800 gallons
- Fresh paint
- Fresh teak decks and covering boards
- Range 550 NM at cruise

Soul Candy is pristine with continuous updates and always maintained with an open check book. For the buyer looking for a turn-key vessel ready to travel, fish she is the perfect choice.

Soul Candy is ready to continue her tradition of winning tournaments and making memories with family and friends. Be sure to put this 65 Paul Mann on the top of your list. Soul Candy will not disappoint you.
