Overview

Just before they went out of the monohull business Endeavour developed a new, larger, upscale cruising boat that they hoped would be the future of monohulls for the company. The new cutter was beautiful, well- built and a very comfortable cruiser. They shut down the effort after just one boat was built, this unique, great cruising boat. This boat is loaded with cruiser comforts.

- Boom furling mainsail
- 3 Electric winches
- Power dinghy lift
- Multi-cabin air conditioning
- 5 solar panels with MPPT controller
- Generator

This boat hasn't been on your list but it should be. Don't confuse it with the standard Endeavours. It's unique. ## Accommodations

Entering from the companionway the galley is aft on the port side. Forward of the galley in the saloon is a dinette. Opposite the dinette forward is a wine locker with an icemaker in a custom cabinet below. Aft of the wine locker/icemaker on the starboard side is a straight settee perfect for putting your feet up and reading a book. Just aft of the starboard settee is a forward facing nav station.

Aft of the saloon to port is the galley. The inboard side of the galley offers double stainless steel sinks and counter space. Doors offer access to the engine and generator. Opposite the sink on the outboard side next to the saloon is a top loading refrigerator and more counter space. Further aft is a built-in eye level microwave oven. The stove is below and more counter space is further aft. At the aft end of the galley are stacked front opening refrigerator and freezer.

Entry to the owner's suite is at the aft end of the galley. The owner's suite features an island queen berth with seats and ample storage on each side. On the forward bulkhead is a custom vanity with pull-out bucket chair. Above the vanity is a flat panel TV with built-in DVD player. To starboard and forward is the owner's head and shower. The separate shower features a smoked acrylic door and a comfortable shower seat.

Forward of the saloon toward the entry to the VIP suite on the port side is the forward head with electric head and en suite shower. Two doors offer public access from the saloon and private access from the VIP stateroom. Opposite the forward head is the cabinet that houses a Splendide washer/dryer. The vee berth serves as a comfortable VIP berth.
