Accommodation

M/Y HADIA's exceedingly generous GRT gives her an interior with proportions equal to many yachts significantly longer than her. The Owner and Guest accommodations have been designed to give maximum luxury and amenities to the Owner's party, all the while keeping a marvellous exhibility of use. HADIA can welcome a total of 14 guests. 12 guests in 6 staterooms and 2 Pullmans in the massage room. Main Deck The Owner's suite on HADIA is forward on the main deck. Entrance to the suite is made on the starboard side through the Owner's private oce and adjoining sitting room. This king bedded stateroom is nished in teak and makes full use of the yacht's large beam. 'His' and 'Hers' ensuite bathrooms are connected through a central double shower unit and bath tub. Aft of the bedroom to port is a large cedar walled walk-in dressing room. The salon on the main deck is open plan. White panels and vast windows line either side of the salon with 4 ottomans providing additional seating. The living area comprises 2 comfortable sofas, 2 armchairs and a large leather coffee table. A buffet housing the flat screen TV separates the dining area with its table for 12 guests. A day head can be found in the walkway leading to the Master suite. A full-service bar is strategically located next to the sliding door leading to the aft deck. The aft main deck is surrounded by teak panels, giving the exterior bulwarks an almost interior finish with big panels of tempered glass that disappear into pockets in side-deck wing features, or slide out for wind protection. There is also a fully shaded large sofa and sunpads for lounging in the sun. Bridge Deck The skylounge has a beach house feel, with blue and floral soft furnishings, window blinds and bent-wood furniture. The overall look is modern with a few nautical touches. There is a day head and a skylight to the Sundeck in the passageway to the bridge that also leads to the upper pantry. Two seating areas are found port and starboard side of the skylounge, with sofas, armchairs and soft cushioned coffee tables. A second full-service bar is located by the sliding doors to aft, allowing convenient beverage service to outside and in. The aft deck has a huge round table for 14 guests and a large sofa for convivial gatherings for formal or casual dining, fully shaded. A full walkway on either side and two stairways linking all three decks make movement around the exterior spaces flawless. Service is facilitated with a second forward staircase allowing discreet access to the pantry on the portside. A food conveyor serving all four decks also helps keeping all areas well within the capabilities of the commercial-grade galley which also has a serving area and large portholes allowing plenty of natural light. The primary tender is a 21' Novurania tender and is located to starboard on the bridge deck, concealed behind a wing feature that slides outward and is launched by way of a beam crane. The centrepiece of the pilot house is a six-screen console and the three leaning posts include Lombard support bolsters for comfortable watch keeping. A radio desk/weather station is tucked behind an elevated observer's settee on the starboard side. The captain's double cabin is adjacent to the ship's office aft of the pilot house and forward is a huge open-air semi-circular lounge with a sofa for 10 guest, large table and pop-up flat screen TV. Lower Deck The lobby's stairs on the starboard side lead to a central foyer on the lower deck. There are 5 full guest suites plus a separate bunk bedded cabin for children, nannies or private sta. Opposite this last cabin is a massage/treatment room with 2 Pullmans. The two VIP staterooms are generously sized, well-appointed with a large ottoman each and walk-in wardrobes leading to their ensuite with bathtubs. The two double staterooms are slightly smaller ensembles with showers. After a short corridor is the twin bunked cabin, also ensuite with shower and the discreetly tucked away massage/treatment room to starboard with two Pullmans offering extra berths to children or staff. This room can be adjoined to one of the double staterooms as a children cabin through a connecting door to the ensuite bathroom. A large hatch on the Main deck opens to a staircase leading down to the garage and accessing the swim platform. The garage can accommodate another smaller tender, and/or wave-runners as required. Two technical spaces can be found on either side, forward there is a soundproof control room and the well maintained engine room. A large door in the flush transom opens to form a broad swim platform, extending the deck area of the Lazarette that can house a full range of toys from jet skis to sea bobs, fishing and Scuba equipment There are four upper/lower bunk crew cabins on the lower deck forward, plus an engineer's cabin all with 4 ensuite facilities. There is a comfortable and well lit crew mess and a spacious laundry room with walk-in freezer and a dry-store for provisions. Sun Deck HADIA has a superb sundeck equipped with a vast Jacuzzi aft. The helipad is also located aft and is built to accommodate a 3000 KGS helicopter allows quick shuttle service for Owners and guests. It can be used to store extra toys instead and these can be hoisted launched and retrieved by way of a crane. Glass partitions separate the area beneath the arch from forward and aft, allowing a full air-conditioned gym, with enough space for several pieces of equipment, flat screen TV and full steam shower room with a pull-out head. A superb raised dining area is found forward and is a great space to entertain whilst at anchor. At night the skylight provides pleasant illumination from the bridge deck and during the day a large awning provides shade to the deck. There is also a further sofa, sunpads forward and 2 small settees on either side by the gym. HADIA has the equivalent volume of many 60m yachts but with the associated lower running cost of a 50m. Her length is on the upper limit to enter the most popular ports and anchorages.
