PowerBoat Guide Description

Following up on the success of the 390 Sports Coupe introduced in 2007, the Cruisers 430 Sports Coupe (called the 420 in 2009–11) takes sportyacht luxury and comfort to the next level. Like her predecessor, the 430's semi-enclosed cockpit provides a weather-protected platform for entertaining on a grand scale. Amenities include sunroof, port-side companion seating, wet bar with sink and refrigerator, cockpit tables that convert to a sun lounge, cockpit grill, and a transom rumble seat. Access to the bow is via a side deck or split windshield. Below decks, the 420's opulent interior—with its built-in liquor cabinet, nearly 7-foot headroom, and crescent-shaped dinette—includes two large staterooms, two heads, and a home-size galley complete with wine/bottle storage and microwave/convection oven. A flat-screen TV and leather seating are standard, and the main head has a separate stall shower. Note the side-by-side chaise lounge sun pad (with adjustable backrests) on the foredeck. An electric hatch provides good access to the engines. The vertical hull ports are a nice design touch. Cruise at 24–25 knots with Volvo 370hp IPS pod drive diesels.
