Overview

Unparalleled purpose and poise. Apola is for sale with West Nautical yacht brokerage.

Constructed by the same shipyard as many of the Italian Navy's ships, Apola is a modern interpretation of the classic try-deck luxury yacht. A purposeful yacht that's a rare blend of style and substance, Apola has the feel of a much larger boat. Both on deck and below, she is a capable and very comfortable vessel.

A considerable main saloon provides a dedicated interior space to entertain a large group, extending out onto an unusually large aft deck with further seating. Perfect for yacht charter. Above, on the top deck, an extensive space gives fantastic all round views above the bridge. There is also a wide sunbathing platform aft and seating area forward.

Below deck, Apola accommodates up to thirteen guests in well proportioned, classically decorated cabins. The master cabin is particularly notable, being full beam, and bathed in natural light.

An extensive garage aft easily accommodates a large tender up to five metres, two jet skis, water sports equipment and other toys. Opening up numerous entertainment options as a charter yacht, with a large swim platform for launch and recovery. Thought and care, typical of a naval boatyard, have gone into making Apola's everyday operation practical for the crew.

Apola's full displacement profile gives beautiful lines and excellent seakeeping capabilities, making her a real go-places boat, with equally strong abilities to entertain alongside or at anchor.

A rare breed ready to be enjoyed by her new owner. Full specs and photos available by request.
