Overview

This 2005 31 Camano Troll is a comfortable, well-kept cruising trawler. She has been very lightly used and her interior reflects it in its nearly new condition. The boat has every amenity you need for a long distance trip or a weekend getaway. She is a solidly built, very clean vessel, ready for a new owner!

This boat comes fitted with a Cruisair heating and air conditioning unit. There is no generator installed so heat and air are limited to while the boat is at the dock on shore power.
