ХАРАКТЕРИСТИКИ

Обзор

Morgan Out Island 41s are some of the most popular cruising boats ever built. They're solid and comfortable for living aboard. Unlike most Out Island 41s, Khaya Moya is a sloop, not a ketch. It's a less complicated rig that points better than a ketch. It's also been completely redecorated inside and well maintained.

- Sloop rig
- Mainsail, genoa and storm sail in very good condition
- Custom redecorated interior
- Raymarine instruments - NEW 2011!
- ICOM M802 SSB radio
- Plastimo 4 man life raft in valise - NEW 2011!
- Double sink - NEW 2015!
- Deck box - NEW 2015!

Accommodations

The Morgan 413 is a walkover providing terrific privacy and lots of storage. From the cockpit go in the forward companionway down just a few short steps to the saloon. Immediately to port is a U-shaped galley. Just forward of the galley is a U-shaped dinette. The settee in the dinette can be used as a single berth. Opposite the dinette is a straight settee. The starboard settee can be used as a single berth and a perfect sea berth for offshore passages. Above the settees the owners have installed ample custom cabinetry. Aft of the starboard settee is additional galley counter space and storage.

From the saloon a passage leads forward to the forward head and VIP suite. To port is the forward head. Two doors to the forward head allow access from the saloon and private access from the VIP stateroom. Forward of the forward head is the vee berth. To starboard of the vee berth is VIP suite storage.

From the cockpit another companionway leads just a few steps aft into the private owner's suite. The owner's berth is huge and oriented across the stern. The suite includes a private head with shower and custom cabinetry.
