SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Low maintenance, low hour fishing machine, ready to put into immediate service. With many recent upgrades and regular service, this 40 Express is rigged to fish and with a pair of dependable and economical Caterpillar 3126 with just 1866 hours, she will be affordable to operate for years to come. If you are the kind of fisherman that likes to run the boat and still be in on the action, this center console Express layout offers easy access and plenty of room to move around for the whole crew. She also boasts a fully rigged tuna tower for when you need to get up above it all.... Easy to clean up and with a comfortable interior layout and ample storage throughout for all of the array of tackle that it takes these days to compete, this 40 Luhrs makes more sense than a lot of others in her class and price range. She's also the lowest priced one on the market from her era. Give us a call and check her out.
