DETAILED INFORMATION

Lazy Asset walk through

This Sea Ray 420 Aft Cabin has three comfortable staterooms, ample walkways, and a cockpit that can accommodate a host of guests with ease. Below, the wide-open cabin allows passengers to enjoy a sumptuous interior noted for its quietness thanks to Sea Ray's patented underwater exhaust system. An L-shaped salon sofa provides a relaxing atmosphere for watching the SAT TV. There's also a convenient raised L-shaped dinette with room for four. The fully equipped galley features a flush-mounted three-burner electric stove, a microwave, refrigerator with freezer, sink, custom-molded countertop with new Corian covers, and a tremendous amount of storage space above and below.

The aft master stateroom has queen-size bed, abundant storage, and full head with shower. The forward stateroom V-berth has a full-size bed and plenty of built-ins. The third cabin is to port with twin beds for additional sleeping and storage space.

Above, passengers can congregate on the roomy aft deck of the Sea Ray 420 Aft Cabin in any weather because it's protected by a fiberglass hardtop, custom fiberglass skirts, and acrylic entrance doors to port and starboard. The smooth, clean profile means there are no steps to the foredeck

A transom door allows easy access to the swim platform where there's an oversized storage compartment with gas-assisted hatch and automatic sump pump. The forward-mounted bridge helm affords the captain better visibility forward and aft, while guests have a wide open space to enjoy the bar. The seating arrangement includes two custom slide and swivel helm seats, an aft-facing sun lounge and a bench seat.

Upgrades include new batteries, fresh bottom (Nov 2016), buff and wax, flat panel tv's, and an Intelian SAT TV system.
