Overview

The Hatteras 54 Motor Yacht was introduced in 1985 and was the first of the "new look" Hatteras motor yachts. The 54 was designed to replace the aging 53 Hatteras motor yacht and the 54 was built on a beamy modified V hull. The I One has the standard three-stateroom floorplan with the galley down. The lower helm station is open to the salon. Each stateroom has a private head compartment with stall showers. The I One is on her second owner and is well maintained with many upgrades. Summary

The I One is a well maintained yacht. This is a two owner boat with the second owner buying her in 2011. The owner is looking to move up to a larger yacht. The I One has just had her engines serviced and she is ready to go.

The current owner has made numerous upgrades to this fine yacht. Originally, the yacht had extensive carpet flooring and much of that has been replaced with a wood look vinyl floor. While she still maintains that traditional look of this vintage boat, many of these improvements made maintenance a little easier. The electronics on the boat were installed in 2010.
