SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

This 1994 33 Blackfin is everything you might be looking for in an entry level convertible sportfish. A spacious flybridge and ample cockpit space makes this boat feel much bigger than its 33 feet would suggest. A deep-vee hull allows it to cut through rough seas and the 12 foot beam makes for a very stable fishing platform. This boat has been meticulously cared for, ready to fish with numerous upgrades and updates. This one owner vessel has everything you need to get out on the water today.

DETAILED INFORMATION

Vessel Walkthrough

Stepping aboard this boat into the cockpit, you will find large cockpit space with a transom door and drop in fish boxes. Forward in the cockpit, the engines can be easily accessed via two motor boxes to port and starboard. A ladder to starboard permits access to the helm. The helm boasts brand new Pompanette helm seats, wide bench seating for guests forward and a full isinglass enclosure beneath a hardtop. Entering the cabin from the cockpit, the head is set to starboard just forward of the AC DC breaker panel. To port, there is a large, L-shaped bench seat that can convert to a secondary berth. The galley is forward of the head to starboard. It has a two burner stove, microwave oven, under mounted sink and ample storage. In the bow, there is a dinette area with a pedestal table. The table drops flush to become the master berth while staying on board.
