Overview

Originally the yacht Thales started life as a seaworthy fishing trawler launched in 1969. In 2002/2003 Metz Shipyard rebuilt her entirely from a fishing trawler into an expedition trawler. The rebuilt was done in accordance to the rules of the Dutch flag state to do day charters. Until today Thales is stationed in the area of Rotterdam where it has a successful reputation for high-end day charters. Dim. 28.32 x 6.72 x 3.00 meter and with a steel hull and superstructure. The yacht offers two comfortable outside deck areas; one shaded aft deck on main deck and one big sundeck with wide views. Still active as a charter yacht for day charters with the impressive galley that has been professionally built to cater up to 30 guests. The dining table in the saloon is a special feature as well since it can be extended to a very large table for a sit-down dinner. There are 4 very spacious cabins with 10 berths in total. She always has been professionally maintained to the highest standards. Very suitable for living on board or for those who are interested in day charter possibilities. For more information:
