Vessel Walkthrough: Sleeps 4 in 2 staterooms. Forward is a spacious guest cabin with v-berth. This area has two opening ports and one opening hatch with screens. It has a hanging locker and ample storage in drawers and cupboards. The forward living area has it's own head with manual toilet. Aft and two steps up to port is the u-shpaed galley, separated from the salon by the breakfast bar. One step up from the galley is the saloon with the lower helm to starboard. There is a door on the port side of the saloon giving easy acces to the wide, walk-around decks. In the aft port corner of the saloon there is a lirage built-in cabinet. On the starboard side of the saloon is a custom made L-shaped settee with full storage beneath. Down three steps aft is the master stateroom with a centerline queen berth. There are opening windows with screen on both sides as well as a convenient hatch access to the cockpit on the starboard side. There is a ceiling to floor hanging locker and many drawers and cupboards for storage. An ensuite fresh water Vaccuflush head is to starboard and a shower stall is to port. Forward there is a new fresh water Vaccuflush head. The teak and joinery work for which Ocean Alexander vessels are well know, is of the highest quality throughout. This a very rare non-teak deck boat.
