Vessel Walkthrough

Three Staterooms/ Two Heads.

The dual helm stations allow you to be in the sun when it is nice out or drive from the comfort and safety of the lower helm when it is needed. She has a galley up design so that everyone can comingle while preparing dinner.

Upon entering the main salon through stainless steel framed sliding doors, the entertainment center is to port. Just below, there is a cocktail cabinet with refrigerator and storage. To port is a straight settee. Across to starboard is the U-shaped settee with hi-lo cherry/maple trimmed table. Both settees have storage beneath. Moving forward and up one step, is the lower helm station with two adjustable helm chairs with storage below. Directly across and down one step is the U-shaped galley.

The master stateroom is located all the way forward and has a queen size island berth with storage beneath, port and starboard hanging lockers and a dressing table with mirror and storage. The master head is en-suite with an enclosed shower. It has mirrors and lighting, under-counter storage, exhaust fans and a Vacu-flush head.

The port side guest stateroom has upper and lower berths with drawer storage. There is a hanging locker, overhead and reading lights and mirror.

The starboard guest stateroom has side-by-side twin berths. There is a drawer storage and a full-length hanging locker. There are overhead and reading lights in all staterooms. Opening port holes provide fresh air and daylight if needed. The guest head has an enclosed shower, sink and Vacu-flush head. It is accessible from the companionway.

Galley

Across from the main helm is the galley which features Corian counter-tops, drawer storage and cabinets, refrigerator/freezer, four-burner Neff electric cooktop with exhaust fan and cover, a Kenmore Elite microwave/convection oven, a Kulschrank 120v refrigerator behind a cabinet door, and a waste bin. There is one circular stainless steel sink, overhead and indirect lighting and an abundance of storage.
