Overview

2007 53' Post Convertible

The 53 Post was Post's final model before ending an era of luxury sport fishing yachts. Built in the quad with other big name brand boat manufacturers, Post always built classic styling yachts with excellent quality. The 53 Post has three staterooms and two heads. Ros Lyn is a one owner vessel with low hours on Caterpillar C 18's. New to the market, Ros Lyn is a must see as there is not much out there in a late model sport fish for this price point and that is clean as this boat is now! Make an appointment, easy to see at Farley Marina in beautiful Atlantic City, NJ!
