Manufacturer Provided Description

Announcing the Viking 93 Motor Yacht

Viking motor yachts represent a dynamic tradition spanning more than a half century of intense interplay between engineering excellence and elegant accommodations. With each new model, the mantra to build a better boat every day comes to fruition demonstrating that our shipwrights stand committed to take every Viking beyond the next level. With great anticipation this continuity moves forward as we build the largest Viking in our history, the 93 Motor Yacht, a momentous achievement blending understated magnificence with the outstanding execution you would expect from Viking.

Designed for the experienced yachtsman whose quest for wanderlust remains to be fulfilled, the Viking 93 MY will exceed those expectations and deliver outward bound horizons with style and functionality. The exterior profile is both sleek and timeless with an inspiring sheer complemented with artfully shaped window lines throughout the yacht's tri-level form.

The enclosed bridge accessed from the salon and lower after deck showcases an impressive helm with outstanding visibility. Outfitted with navigation and communication systems from our subsidiary Atlantic Marine Electronics assures the efficacy of turnkey delivery, which Viking offers to all of its owners. Aft the helm area accommodations abound with enticing opportunities for relaxing and entertaining with salon elements including a spacious L-shape lounge and cocktail table, a wet bar, and a flat screen television. A sliding, stainless-steel framed glass door opens to the upper after deck with additional bar stool seating, an L-shape dinette, a grilling area, and ample open space for lounges and deck chairs.

Discerning intentness follows suite throughout the interior with our shipwrights' trademark expertise in joinery of teak or walnut. On the main deck, the salon entered through polished stainless-steel framed electrically activated sliding glass doors is a sociable achievement with a leather appointed lounge, a cocktail table and occasional chairs. A formal dining table seats eight. The galley has the congenial atmosphere of the country kitchen featuring Amtico flooring, an island counter and casual dining forward bathed with natural lighting, world class appliances and significant stowage for supplies, dinnerware and utensils. On the teak-planked after deck, an L-shape wet bar with refrigeration and a U-shape teak table provide additional amenities for relaxing, entertaining and al fresco dining. Dual staircases to the swim platform also provide access to the garage and dinghy stowage.

Magnificent accommodations below blend spaciousness and elegance throughout the five staterooms. The privately accessed full beam master suite is royally appointed with designer touches including plush wall-to-wall premium carpeting, a king-size bed, hullside windows, surround sound entertainment systems, a walk-in closet, a sofa, a dressing table, and an ensuite head with radiant heated tile flooring. Four additional staterooms deliver family and guests with utmost comfort, and privacy. Crew quarters discreetly reached from the after deck include a pair of staterooms, a head and shower, and a galley with a dinette.

Slated for its world premiere at the 2017 Fort Lauderdale International Boat Show this coming November, the Viking 93 Motor Yacht breaks new ground in motor yacht styling while enhancing our inimitable reputation for design and engineering.
