The Pacific Seacraft 34 was recently named by Cruising World as one of the top seven cruising designs under $100k. This stout Bill Crealock double-ender is an ideal couples cruiser with room to sleep two, feed four, and entertain six.

Crealock 34's have classic proportions and lines, with a modern fin keel and tough skeg hung rudder. Her double-ender design lends itself to a very comfortable ride in heavy seas.

Rain Dog's present owners have enjoyed cruising her throughout most of the Bahamas and coastal Florida for the past two years. Unfortunately, health issues now require them to move in a different direction.

Manufacturer Provided Description

The Pacific Seacraft 34 offers fast performance under sail, seakindliness, ease of handling, comfort and timeless beauty. All the advantages of the Crealock-designed canoe stern with its ample overhang, well-proven in other Pacific Seacraft, are incorporated in the Pacific Seacraft 34.

The Pacific Seacraft 34's moderate displacement contributes to both comfort and speed. She is light enough to make her swift, heavy enough to make her comfortable, and spacious enough to hold ample stores for a long passage.

Belowdecks, she's light, airy and exceptionally commodious with 6-foot 3-inch headroom; a spacious, versatile salon; U-shaped gourmet galley; and bunk space for six. Her quality is evident in solid bronze fittings, teak joinery, a hand laid-up hull and molded fiberglass interior.
