Walkthrough

Entering "No Regrets" from the starboard side amidships, one finds a wide, open and clutter free salon area with the helm to ones immediate right (forward) and a roll top style desk with drawers on ones left and an "L" shaped leather couch further to stern next to the desk. A sturdy coffee table accompanies the couch. On the opposite side of the salon there are two occasional chairs, a magazine rack built in and an entertainment center. On the port side forward in the salon is a breakfast bar area with seating for two overlooking the lowered galley. Moving forward from the salon, there is a roomy galley to port and a head to starboard. Further forward one finds a large comfortable "V" berth with comfortable cushioning in excellent condition. Astern of the salon, down a short companionway, the interior opens to a generously wide aft cabin, noticeably wider than standard Grand Banks vessels. The aft cabin has a large queen size bed with plenty of room on each side. Another head is located on the port side as well as a desk area with storage astern of the head. Storage abound on all areas of this vessel and her rich wood interior is inviting. The aft cabin also has a companionway accessing the aft deck for ease in egress.
