Overview

(LOCATION: Bonyton Beach FL) This Hatteras 41 Raised Deck Convertible has served her current owners well for many years. An exceptional Hatteras 41, this is a classic convertible with a reputation for good looks, quality, comfort, and performance. She comes with a large flybridge, roomy well-equipped cockpit, open salon, full galley, and two staterooms.

The flybridge features bimini top, centerline helm, twin helm seats, guest seating, and under-seat storage, and a ladder leading below to the cockpit.

The spacious cockpit features a Pompanette fighting chair, fish box, live bait well, flush mount rod holders, and Rupp outriggers. Foredeck features include bow pulpit with Danforth anchor, 300; chain, and windlass.

The roomy salon is bright, open, with mahogany woodwork, and lower station. There is ample room to relax and entertain.

There are two staterooms. The guest stateroom is starboard with upper and lower bunks that convert into lounge seating. The master stateroom is forward and features queen berth with under berth storage, and hanging lockers. The head compartment has new toilet, mirrored vanity and shower stall.

This Hatteras 41 Convertible is equipped with twin 6V 53 Detroit Diesel engines for long-lasting dependable power. Mechanical features include an Onan 4-kW generator. Re-fitted in 2005 this 41 Hatteras has been a charter fisherman since 1971. She has caught a lot of fish along the way, is ready to catch many more. If you enjoy sportfishing and want to do it with classic style, call now and schedule a showing.

Available as a turn key charter boat business at busy south Florida marina.
