Sea Ray took a completely new hull and built a premium bowrider, loaded with upscale features. She is called the 250 SLX and like other boats in this series she has lots of eye candy.

The main cockpit has what one would expect, helm and companion bucket seats and a wraparound lounge aft. The buckets have flip-up bolsters for thigh support while standing and both seats swivel and adjust fore and aft. The lounge sits on a fiberglass base with stowage underneath, and looks to us to be big enough to fit the most families. A table is included. The cockpit sole is fiberglass, with snap-in carpet standard and ski or wakeboard stowage in a lockable compartment underneath.

The stern features a center walkthrough with removable cushions on the bench seat providing a nonskid surface. When operating, a seat back gets inserted, as well as a center cushion for the aft sun pad creating nearly full beam sun space. The swim platform featured an optional teak deck that adds to the style and elegance of the 250 SLX. Searay has outdone themselves on this spacious 25 footer.

Performance and Handling

Our test boat featured a single 300-hp 350 MAG as standard power. With this engine we reached a top speed of 47.9 mph while burning 23.4 gallons per hour giving us a range of 138 miles. Best cruise came in at 3500 rpm and 28.9 mph which gives a fuel burn of 9.1 gallons per hour and a range of 214 miles while still maintaining a 10% reserve.
