SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Manufacturer Provided Description The Sea Ray 225 Weekender is powered by a 5.0 L MPI Alpha I MCM stern drive. The burl instrument panel provides easy access and visibility of all control station functions including power tilt and trim. The 225 Weekender offers a standard tilt wheel with power steering, along with an exclusive waterproof switch pad. A lockable cabin door with integral steps leads to the foredeck. Removable aft jump seats that double as a sunlounger can be stored in the port and starboard side panels. The removable motorbox provides superior access to the engine. The walk-through transom door opens to the integral swim platform. After dinner, the dining table can be stowed and the filler cushions convert the V-berth to a comfortable bed that sleeps two. A convenient head with a portable toilet and privacy curtain is starboard. The galley with sink and faucet has upper and lower storage, as well as a trash receptacle. Engine Notes Volvo diesel stern drive also available. Electronic's
