Walkthrough

ILLUSIONS is a well-designed and thought out yacht which has had continuous improvement over the many years this owner has owned her. The design separates the below deck accommodations into three distinct areas situated on either side of the engine room. Her design provides the quietest and most comfortable sleeping areas and makes the most use of the entire volume of the hull. Three of the four staterooms are full beam and the fourth is  $\frac{3}{4}$  beam. The crew are separated in the bow and the stern. The salon is extensive and has many individual areas for intimate relaxation. The flybridge/sundeck is full beam and spacious with lots of options for lounging or sunbathing. The foredeck is truly a guest area with a large teak covered deck and a four-person Jacuzzi with sun bathing cushions all around. The aft deck has dining and lounging areas and gives access via a wide staircase to large swim platform with submersible TNT lift. The lift carries the Jet Tender when under way and becomes a submersible beach when at anchor. Amazingly, this yacht has full walk around teak covered decks.
