DETAILED INFORMATION

Overview

- New Garmin electronics
- New interior soft goods
- All engine services current
- Hinged radar arch for 15' clearance

This is an extremely spacious, elegant and rare 52 West Bay Sonship pilothouse motor yacht. Features include three staterooms, wide walk-around side decks, a huge walk-in engine room, cockpit with easy water access and a newly decorated light and bright interior. A must see for fast pilothouse motor yacht buyers.

Vessel Walkthrough

A molded fiberglass swim platform with swim ladder stored beneath is all the way aft and a walk-thru transom door leads forward into the cockpit/aft-deck. From here, one may proceed forward to the bow via port and starboard side-decks, up to the boat-deck above via a ladder or through dual opening tempered glass doors entering the salon. Forward of the well lit and spacious salon and up 3 steps leads to; a set of wood stairs on starboard side leading easily up to the fly-bridge and upper steering station. The Galley, dinette and lower steering station are just forward. Port & starboard side doors from the pilothouse lead out to the side-decks and a wide stairway leads at a comfortable angle forward and down to the owner/guest accommodations. The owner's Stateroom is positioned aft in this area and features a private head with built-in shower stall en-suite. Forward of the owner's stateroom on port side is the 2nd guest's stateroom with over/under bunk berths. A head with separate stall shower is across the companionway to starboard and all the way forward is the VIP guest stateroom.

Main Salon

When entering this well lit area one is immediately impressed by its spaciousness and by the rich, hand finished oak woodwork throughout. A large and most comfortable white leather U-shaped sofa is to port surrounding a high gloss teak high-low table with fold-down leaves. A white leather reclining chair with teak trim is opposite the sofa to starboard. Forward to starboard is an oak cabinet/entertainment center with Corian top upon which a 42" Panasonic flat screen TV and Sonos sound bar are mounted. The salon sole is covered in a high quality light beige colored carpet and has carpet runners to protect the high traffic areas. Hunter Douglas Silhouette shades cover all of the perimeter salon windows. The yacht's interior was built of red oak wood and finished in a distinctive light stain. The effect of the interior is one of superb high quality and elegance.

Remarks

"TIMELESS" has been impressively well maintained since the yacht was delivered new. She was originally customized to include larger horsepower engines, more fuel than was standard in this model and an upgraded interior. the current owner has continued a program of service and updates during the last 6 years. All recommended engine services including after cooler and heat exchanger services are current. "TIMELESS" is a yacht well worth consideration. She will not disappoint.
