Overview

This Albin 27 Family Cruiser is the legendary favorite pocket trawler. Made in America, Albin aft cabin models remain well respected for seaworthiness, room for a family, comfortable for long range cruising and liveaboard simple lifestyle. White Pelican is in good condition, ready to cruise to your destination with the highly desirable 100 hp Westerbeke diesel. There is no more affordable, comfortable trawler that provides sleeping quarters for 4, full galley, roomy private sleeping stateroom, and the opportunity to meet all the other Albin cruising couples and families along the waterway who will flag you down to say hello.

WALK THROUGH TOUR

Admire from the dock this Albin 27 downeast traditional nautical lines. Note the full walkaround side decks with bow and stern rails and teak hand holds strategically located along the sides. While Albin is on lift, look below swim platform to observe 3 blade propeller protected by skeg connecting keel to rudder.

Step aboard amidship into cockpit. Note two side facing seats with storage underneath. Walk forward through isinglass drop curtains to pilothouse helm. Observe the all-around view from the helm through windshield, side windows and open back over low aft cabin roof while sitting on raised captain's double seat or mate's raised seat. Notice how navigation electronics are within sight and easy reach.

Walk forward and down 3 steps to forward cabin. Look all around to note teak paneling, 6 opening ports and overhead opening hatch. Open starboard door to observe private head with manual marine toilet, vanity with sink and wand shower faucet. Exit head and turn to port to see in-line galley with large counter workspace, sink, and refrigerator. Turn to starboard for dinette with double seats on each side. Walk further forward to double v-berth.

Return up steps to pilothouse, walk through cockpit and down 2 steps to aft cabin. Observe roomy twin berths with cushion to convert to one queen berth. Note storage under berths and 4 opening ports.

Return to cockpit and step up to deck. Walk forward to bow holding teak grabrail. Observe bow rails and bow pulpit with Danforth anchor and rode of chain and rope. Walk back to aft deck and observe stern rails. Look down to see ladder to full-width teak swim platform and folding swim ladder.

BROKER'S COMMENTS

This Albin 27 Family Cruiser is the all-time favorite pocket trawler. Families and couples have lived aboard, cruised long distances and used as summer cottages by the sea. Everywhere you cruise in your Albin 27, you will meet others cruising in theirs or who had the enjoyable experience of owning one. Enjoy all the reasons why this is the favorite: affordable, roomy, seaworthy, easy to single hand, nautical downeast style, fully equipped galley and sleeps 4 comfortably in 2 private staterooms and made with American craftsmanship. If you're looking for your first trawler or downsizing from larger trawlers or sailboats, give this Albin 27 serious consideration. She won't disappoint.
