Remarks

The Vitamin Sea Too was built to fish live bait tournaments, and to that end is second to none. The owner built the boat and as an extremely experienced fisherman, he was involved in the design and system operations through out the building process. He has maintained the vessel with an open check book policy with over $900,000 of upgrades and has kept the boat up to date with fresh electronics. (records and receipts available upon request). The Vitamin Sea Too would make a great Bahama or day fishing boat, she is quick, economical and a great ride. She has a functional layout and can appeal to any boating needs.
